

Research Question: Discuss how the Masarang Society is able to make positive differences to the environment and welfare of wildlife.

0	1 - 2	3 - 4	5 - 6	7 - 8
The student: does not reach the standard described by any of the descriptors	makes a limited attempt to follow an action plan to investigate a question	partially follows an action plan to investigate a research question	satisfactorily follows an action plan to investigate a research question	follows an action plan effectively to investigate a research question
The student: does not reach the standard described by any of the descriptors	collects and records limited information, not always in line with the research question	uses a method or methods to collect and record some information in line with the research question	uses methods to collect and record appropriate information in line with the research question	uses methods accurately to collect and record appropriate and varied information in line with the research question
The student: does not reach the standard described by any of the descriptors	makes a limited attempt to address the research question	partially addresses the research question	satisfactorily addresses the research question	effectively addresses the research question

- Report format

- Coversheet - Name, Class and Research Question (picture optional)
- Action plan - Brainstorm, outline for your report and planning for information collection
- Introduction - What is your report about? What are you going to talk about?
- Main body - Clear paragraphs and (Statement, Explanation, Example)
- Conclusion - What you have found out? Summary of your report.
- Bibliography - MLA style, wide range of sources
- Appendix